

HAPPY DAYS HOLIDAY TRAVEL HACKS

trav·el hack

/ˈtravəl/ hak/

Noun

1. A way of traveling by attaining flights, hotels, and other amenities at little or no cost by using rewards, shortcuts, tricks, travel points, or any gimmick to avoid cost.
2. A productivity trick, shortcut, skill, or novelty method to increase productivity and make traveling easier, lighter, or more efficient by solving everyday traveling problems in clever or non-obvious ways.

1. When packing, roll your clothes instead of folding them. This saves valuable space in your suitcase
2. Use a medication organiser to store your jewelry, the compartments makes for easy access
3. Put your socks and underwear in your shoes to save space in your suitcase
4. Have an old glasses case lying around? Put your earphones and smaller cables in there to keep them safe
5. No cable ties? Use a paperclip to 'lock' your zips on your luggage
6. Scan your ID, Drivers License, Tickets, Booking Confirmation and any other important documents before your departure.
Email it to yourself, in case of loss or theft
7. Combat the sand on your towel by placing a fitted sheet on the sand and heavier items at the corners
8. Always carry an empty plastic bag with you to the beach, to throw away waste

